Order

4th July 2023

(Through Video Conferencing)

1. The complainants abovenamed have filed the present 16 applications for non-compliance of the various MahaRERA Orders issued in the above-mentioned Complaints (hereinafter referred to as the said complaints), by the respondent.
2. In the said complaints filed by the complainants, the respondent was directed to refund of the amounts paid by the complainants to the respondent along with the interest at the rate of 10.5% p.a. from the date of receipt till they are refunded. The respondent was also directed to pay cost of Rs. 20,000/- to each of the complainants.
3. On the said non-compliance application, the hearing was held through video conferencing as per the MahaRERA Circular no. 27/2020 and MahaRERA Order No. 15/2020.
4. During the hearing, the complainants submitted that the respondent has failed to comply with the orders issued by the MahaRERA authority and has not refunded the amounts to the complainants along with the applicable interest at 10.5% p.a. to the complainants as per the said orders. The complainants therefore sought the issuance of recovery warrants against the respondent under section 40(1) of RERA.
5. The respondent did not appear for the hearing even though the notice of hearing was duly served upon it.

6. After hearing the arguments of the complainants, it is pertinent to note that the respondent has failed to comply with the orders issued by the MahaRERA authority to date and has not paid the refund along with the interest to the complainants as per the directions issued in the said orders. Hence, the orders issued by the MahaRERA authority remain not complied with by the respondent. Hence, any further time granted to the respondent would lead to injustice to the complainants. Hence, the complainants are entitled to seek issuance of recovery warrants against the respondent for recovery of the said amounts payable by the respondent.
7. Therefore, the MahaRERA has no alternative but to proceed with action under section 40(1) of RERA against the respondent. It is therefore, directed to issue individual recovery warrants under section 40(1) of RERA read along with rule 3 of the Maharashtra Real Estate (Regulation & development) (Recovery of Interest, Penalty, Compensation, Fine Payable, Forms of Complaint & Appeals etc.) rules, 2017, against the booked flats in the said project of the respondent.
8. In view of the above, the 16 applications of non-compliance stand disposed of.

FINAL ORDER

18th February 2020.

The complainants have filed the complaints under Section 18 of RERA for getting refund of their amount paid to the respondents in respect of booking of their flats in respondents' registered project Bhagtani Serenity situated at Village Hiranagar, Chikhli, Karur. The necessary information furnished by the complainants is as under:-

Complainant/s	Flat No	Amount Paid (Rs)
Asrushi Kojrawal	B-2303	15,75,400/-
Darshana Tolam	A-2102	2,70,827/-
Gaurang Nalk	C-2701	15,25,522/-
Janak Joshi	A-2301	12,10,022/-
Levindra Bhusal	A-2301	2,70,827/-
Hardev Pandya	A-2301	2,70,827/-
Samir Inverdi	A-2301	2,70,827/-

Complainants contend that respondents issued the allotment letters containing given that respondents shall complete construction within the period of 42 months from the receipt of final occupancy certificate from panchayat level if the clearances are not obtained within the period of 9 months. With the grace period of 9 months the respondents shall be entitled to the refund of all their dues as well as interest paid by respondents by their letter dated 24th Feb. 2017 showed their inability to complete the construction and give possession as agreed. Respondents made themselves liable to refund all the amount paid by the complainants with interest under Section 18 of Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act, 2016 (RERA).

2. The respondents have failed to reply in respect of flats and their learner advocates submitted that there is a court order on all the complaints. Respondents found that the respondents took the investors and they are not aware of the use of the flats and the provisional allotment flats they have sold and their terms and conditions. The provisional letters for booking a flat have been approved and permitted to be granted by various authorities for the construction and the construction and therefore it cannot be said that the respondents are not in possession required for construction but the respondents have not completed the construction. Therefore, the respondents are not in possession of the flats and the respondents are not in possession of the flats. Therefore, the respondents are not in possession of the flats.

3. The respondents have not replied to the questions and the respondents are not in possession of the flats and the respondents are not in possession of the flats.

Points.

Findings.

1. Whether the respondents failed to reply in respect of flats and their learner advocates submitted that there is a court order on all the complaints.

Affirmative.

2. Whether the complainants are entitled to get back their amount with interest.

Affirmative.

Reasons

4. In Neelkamal Realtors & Builders Pvt. Ltd. v. Union of India (W.P.No. 2735 of 2015) the Hon'ble Bench comprising of three judges have held that sections 12 and 18 of RERA are retroactive. Allotment letters disclose the fact that the complainant had agreed to purchase the respondents' agreed to sell that and therefore cannot be said to be a sale agreement. I find that they are allottees as defined in section 2(d) of MRKA hence this Authority has jurisdiction to entertain these complaints.

5. Complainants have stated that the allotment letters issued by the respondents. On the perusal of the same, it is found that the respondents made false statement/representations that the project is viable and it would be completed.

6. Complainants have not accepted the letter dated 24/07/2017, but they have received the letter dated 11/08/2017 when allotment for Gaurang Nalk from the same project is disallowing the fact that for a project as mentioned in the said letter, it is not possible for them to proceed ahead with the project and complete it. Hence it is a claim to have proceeds from the respondents have failed to construct and complete the project as stated. Respondents have failed to complete the project as to finish the statement. Hon'ble High Court has also referred to such a situation where the promoters can claim frustration when they are unable to complete the project on account of their owing to the act of God/external factors. See: Prakash Kumar vs Union of India, Writ No. 2737 of 2017, 35 para 150 of the judgment. Their Lordships have mentioned that even in such a situation promoters will have to return the allotment amount with interest to the allottee/ allotment seeker for refund of their amount.

7. It has been held that the respondents are entitled to pay back their amount. They are entitled to get a fund of these amount with the interest at prescribed rate from the date of allotment of their amount. The prescribed rate of interest is 2% above the 36% highest MCLR which is currently 8.25%. No separate compensation is awarded. The complainants are also entitled to
