Order

4th July 2023

(Through Video Conferencing)

1. The complainants abovenamed have filed the present 16 applications for non-compliance of the various MahaRERA Orders issued in the above-mentioned Complaints (hereinafter referred to as the said complaints), by the respondent.
2. In the said complaints filed by the complainants, the respondent was directed to refund of the amounts paid by the complainants to the respondent along with the interest at the rate of 10.5% p.a. from the date of receipt till they are refunded. The respondent was also directed to pay cost of Rs. 20,000/- to each of the complainants.
3. On the said non-compliance application, the hearing was held through video conferencing as per the MahaRERA Circular no. 27/2020 and MahaRERA Order No. 15/2020.
4. During the hearing, the complainants submitted that the respondent has failed to comply with the orders issued by the MahaRERA authority and has not refunded the amounts to the complainants along with the applicable interest at 10.5% p.a. to the complainants as per the said orders. The complainants therefore sought the issuance of recovery warrants against the respondent under section 40(1) of RERA.
5. The respondent did not appear for the hearing even though the notice of hearing was duly served upon it.

6. After hearing the arguments of the complainants, it is pertinent to note that the respondent has failed to comply with the orders issued by the MahaRERA authority to date and has not paid the refund along with the interest to the complainants as per the directions issued in the said orders. Hence, the orders issued by the MahaRERA authority remain not complied with by the respondent. Hence, any further time granted to the respondent would lead to injustice to the complainants. Hence, the complainants are entitled to seek issuance of recovery warrants against the respondent for recovery of the said amounts payable by the respondent.
7. Therefore, the MahaRERA has no alternative but to proceed with action under section 40(1) of RERA against the respondent. It is therefore, directed to issue individual recovery warrants under section 40(1) of RERA read along with rule 3 of the Maharashtra Real Estate (Regulation & development) (Recovery of Interest, Penalty, Compensation, Fine Payable, Forms of Complaint & Appeals etc.) rules, 2017, against the booked flats in the said project of the respondent.
8. In view of the above, the 16 applications of non-compliance stand disposed of.

FINAL ORDER
15th February 2020.

The complainants have filed the complaints under Section 18 of RERA for getting refund of their amount paid to the respondents in respect of booking of their flats in respondents' registered project Bhagwati Serenity situated at Village Hirarnao, Taluka Kurda. The necessary information furnished by the complainants is as under:-

Complainant/s	Flat No	Amount Paid (Rs)
Asnisa Kejriwal	B-2703	15,50,400/-
Darshana Tolani	A-2102	27,12,300/-
Gaurang Nark	C-2702	15,50,400/-
Janak Chaudhary	C-2703	15,50,400/-
Loveneet Bansal	A-2003	15,50,400/-
Sahana Pandya	A-2002	15,50,400/-
Sami Trivedi	C-2701	15,50,400/-

Complainants contend that respondents issued the allotment letters containing therein that respondents shall complete the construction within the period of 42 months from the receipt of final occupancy certificate from which level if the clearances are not obtained. But in the period of 9 months, i.e. the grace period of 9 months from the date of allotment, they are entitled to get the allotment letters cancelled. The respondents by their letter dated 24th July 2017 showed their inability to complete the construction and give possession as agreed. Respondents made themselves liable to refund all the amount paid by the complainants with interest under Section 18 of Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act, 2016 (RERA).

2. The respondents have filed the reply in defence on 16th June and their learned Advocate submit that Neelkamal is a co-operative society and all the complainants respondents to the said complaint are the investors and they are not architects nor are in firm 11 & 12 of the provisional allotment letters they have drafted that they are not in firm. The provisional letters for booking are subject to approvals and permissions to be granted by various authorities for construction, loan, management contract and therefore it cannot be enforced as the approvals and permissions required for construction have not been granted. Section 18 of RERA is not retrospective. Hence they request to dismiss the complaint.

3. Following points and findings/certification of findings thereof are as under:

Points.	Findings.
1. Whether the respondents failed to complete the project as agreed?	Affirmative.
2. Whether the complainants are entitled to get back their amount with interest?	Affirmative.

Reasons

4. In Neelkamal Realtors S. G. Mehra Pvt. Ltd. v/- Union of India (W.P.No. 2737 of 2019) Hon'ble Justice of Bombay High court have held that sections 12 and 18 of RERA are retroactive. Allotment letters disclose the fact that the complainants agreed to purchase and respondents agreed to sell that and therefore I do not find that complainants are allottees. I find that they are allottees as defined by section 2(d) of REEA. Hence this Authority has jurisdiction to entertain these complaints.

5. Complainants have relied upon the allotment letters issued by the respondents. On their own admission, it is clear that the respondents made false statement/representation that the project is viable and it would be completed.

6. Complainants have not received the letter dated 24.07.2017, but they have relied upon the letter received from their allottee Mr. Gaurang Naik from the same project disclosing the fact that for various reasons mentioned in the said letter, it is not possible for them to proceed ahead with the project and complete it. Hence, the complainants have prayed that the respondents have failed to construct and complete the project as agreed. Respondents have failed to complete the project due to its abandonment. Hon'ble High Court has also referred to such situation where the promoters can claim frustration when they are unable to complete the project due to fault of their own, in the case of Neelkamal Real Estate Suburban Pvt. Ltd. v. Union of India W.P. No. 2737 of 2007. In para. 256 of the judgment, Their Lordships have mentioned that even in such a situation promoters will have to return the allotment amount with interest. Hence, the complainants are entitled for refund of their amount.

7. I have held that the complainants are entitled to get back their amount. They are entitled to get refund of their amount with the interest at prescribed rate from the date of payment of their amount. The prescribed rate of interest is 2% above the SBI's highest MCLR which is currently 8.25%. No separate compensation is awarded. The complainants are also entitled to get Rs. 10,000/- towards the cost of their complaint. Hence the following order.

ORDER

- a) The respondents shall refund the compensation amount paid by them mentioned in the last order simpliciter at the rate of 10.25% per annum from the date of the payment till they are refunded.
- b) The respondents shall pay a sum of Rs. 10,000/- towards the cost of their complaint.
- c) The charge of aforesaid expenses shall be at the expense of property under protest bearing Civil Suit No. 100 of 1981 of the court of village Tirumala of the Kurnool District. The respondents shall be discharged.
